

WASHINGTONVILLE
WRITE-UPS

By Peter M. Harold.

The turn is running light at the Peers mine these days.

Wm. S. Davis and wife of Morgantown were here Monday.

Master Edward Vignone spent Sunday with friends in Youngstown.

Make up your mind as to how to mark the big ballot next Tuesday.

The village ladder houses received some attention the past week.

Rev. D. L. Clark attended District Conference in Malvern this week.

The Wickliffe family of Salem spent Sunday at the home of Chas. DeJone.

Wm. Dalrymple is being groomed by his friends for mayor of this village next year.

August Vignone made the best score at Taylor's rifle range last week and got the necktie.

The band played upon the streets Monday night and will give a dance Saturday night.

Mrs. James Atkinson and sister, Miss "Rosa" Eyster, spent Sunday with relatives in Greenford.

Henry King and family of New Castle are visiting at the home of Geo. King and Charles DeJone.

Miss Josephine Emery of near Columbus is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. V. Kennedy.

Ed. Herrmann was home with his mother over Sunday. He works in a hollow ware foundry.

Owing to the state and national election next Tuesday the village council will meet next Monday night.

W. S. Anderson, C. M. McNabb and Paul Jones are billed to address a republican meeting here tonight.

W. H. McDonald, wife and daughters Bertha and May of Aurora spent Sunday with their parents, J. D. Woods and wife.

The Y. & O. R. was given a black eye at Lisbon, Friday, when Judge Roberts gave J. W. Green a perpetual injunction from the going thro' his farm and $1,000 damages.

The trustees of Green township will meet the trustees of Oakland cemetery at the cross roads Friday afternoon to determine the route of the stream to furnish water for Bob Maxwell's watering trough.

Literary people along the electric lines between Youngstown and Canton have a project on foot to establish a Chautauque course outdoors next summer; and it is thought it will be some where on the Y. & O. R.

It has been suggested that a few extra police be put on duty Saturday night to prevent destruction of property and the needless annoyance of our citizens. Marshal Platt will do his duty, but he cannot be omnipresent.

Chas. Stouffer, Dan Falcon, John Woods and others from here were in Salem Saturday afternoon and saw the foot ball game in which Salem scored 34 and Wellsville 0. It is to be hoped that Salem will have no kick coming out of this outcome.

Robert Young opened his meat market in the Co-op property Monday morning with everything as bright as a new pin. Paul Summerville will assist Mr. Young in making sales, and no one need go hungry for want of anything in that line.

The Washingtonville Entertainment committee submits the following financial statement: Received for season tickets, $127.25; received at the door Oct. 22, $9.50. Total to date, $137.05. Paid Glenside, $24.00. Balance in treasury, $112.15.

Among the Sunday callers to this village were Miss Pearl Weikart and Fred Bossett of Alliance, Miss Erma Heaps of Salem, Harve Beck and wife of Columbiana, Dan Davis of Morgantown, Bert Simpson and wife of Mineral Ridge, Frank Harbaugh of Lisbon.

Sunday was an enjoyable day to be outdoors and the new bridge east of town had many visitors. This bridge and the Y. & O. R. electric line were the bouquets thrown at Washingtonville without cost to the village, yet strongly favored by The Mahoning Dispatch.

Master George Winrow fell down stairs Friday morning, striking a bucket in such a manner as to enlarge his thumb a few inches. Dr. Kennedy made one stitch inside and three stitches outside, and the lad did not whimper during the operation. No anesthetic was administered.

Mrs. David Hively, a former resident of Washingtonville, died at her home in Marlboro, Stark county, Oct. 21. The remains were taken to the home of her brother, Dennis Ward, in Leetonia, and funeral services were held Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. C. Griffin of the M. E. Church. Interment in Oakdale cemetery. Relatives from here attended the funeral. The deceased is survived by three sisters and one brother, besides her husband, Mrs. Frank Brookhart, Mrs. Nancy Callahan and Miss Elma Ward, all of this place and Dennis Ward of Leetonia.

The opening number of the Washingtonville entertainment course was given in the Methodist church last Thursday night by Misses Koethe and Moorehouse. Both the sale of season tickets and the crowded house are entirely satisfactory to the management. The order was exceptionally good and no needless clapping of hands was practiced. Owing to the national election and Thanksgiving no entertainment will be given in November, but on the 6th of December the six colored Jubilee Singers will be here, and owing to their reputation, it is expected that extra seats will have to be provided for that night.

Mrs. Blanche Lewis, wife of Wm. Burdette, died at her home near Columbiana last Saturday, aged 28 years, 5 months and 3 days. She is survived by a husband and three small children who feel the loss of a loving wife and a mother's tender care. She is also survived by her parents, J. E. Lewis and wife, two brothers and two sisters: Earl, Raymond and Edwin of this place and Mrs. Bertha Stark of New Castle, Pa. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. D. L. Clark assisted by Rev. A. J. B. Kaut in presence of a large number of relatives and sympathizing friends. An appropriate discourse was preached by Rev. Clark from the words of Isaiah LXIV, 6: "We all do fade as a leaf." The remains were taken to Oakland cemetery in a beautiful white casket surmounted by many floral tributes, and kind hands laid her to rest to await the general resurrection of the just.

A Socialist speaker is announced to be here this week.

The board of education met Tuesday night and settled the monthly pay roll.

The dance announced to be given by the band Saturday night has been postponed.

This is said to be a good time to select seed corn for next year's planting.

Miss Lizzie Brady of Pittsburgh spent part of the week with her father and sisters here.

Ladies of the Lutheran church will serve a chicken pie supper, and every thing that goes with it, in Allen's hall Saturday night.

James Harrington and sons of Leetonia were Sunday visitors here. Mr. Harrington holds the position on the Ft. Wayne railroad long held by the late James L. Truesdale.

Philip M. Hase of Youngstown was here Saturday looking after his political fences for county commissioner. Good men are needed on the board when building a million dollar court house.

A miscellaneous shower of good things was held at the home of J. L. Fitzpatrick and wife Tuesday night in anticipation of the marriage of the daughter, Adelaide, to Harry L. McNeal Wednesday.

A special jury was drawn at Lisbon Sunday to pass upon the sanity of Chas. Howard of East Liverpool, charged with murder. Among the jurors are Geo. Ballantine and E. E. Halversadt of Columbiana.

There will be a joint debate in Salem Friday night between Bryan and Taft, on a talking machine. The labor question, the trust question and other issues that divide the parties can be heard as far west as the candidates are present.

Rev. H. A. Rhoad of Leetonia occupied Rev. Kaut's pulpit in the Lutheran church Sunday night and preached a learned discourse from Matthew XXIV, 35: "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

Next Saturday will mark the fifth anniversary of the explosion at the Peers coal mine; the foot ball game here with the college team from Canfield scoring 23 for Canfield, and 8 for Washingtonville. Also the "Banda Tones" in Leetonia opera house at night, being Oct. 31, 1908.
